

Simplify the transfer of Service Request Definition from an environment to another

Actually, the mechanism that is used to transfer a Service Request Definition from an environment to another doesn't transfer the whole objects. The AOT and the work-order are not included on the export tool.

It should be very useful to be able to export the whole Service Request Definition to simplify admin work.