

BMC Network Automation-Options method enabled in web server

Team,

It has been observed that the Options method has been enabled on the web server. This HTTP method provides unrequired information about the web server and its configuration, possibly giving unauthorized individuals a greater understanding of the web server configuration. Such a method should be disabled as it is not utilized by the tool in any functionality at all.