

Request Definition User Lookup Improvement

Could Remedyforce return a user's email when using the User lookup from Self Service on a Request Definition? Even better would be if we could select what to return. In some Service Request offerings the full name of the user would be appropriate while in other Service Requests the user's email would be best.

Thanks,
Ben Seba