

Power Management Reports provide the data in terms of Statistics

---

As of now, the Power Management Reports provide the data in terms of Graphs. It would be great to have the data in terms of statistics and various outputs of the power events. This will help in making the further calculations.