

Ability for Administrator to Create and Configure A Pop Up Message

Please provide the ability for Administrator to create and configure a Pop up message to alert staff within the Remedyforce Console list view or within the Remedyforce Incident page layout and display base on certain condition(s) such as when there are incoming tickets or service request in the queue(s) that the staff has membership of.