

DWP Catalog - Re-trigger failed request from the workflow

Please develop a feature that would allow you to re-trigger a failed request from DWP Catalog and continue the process/workflow.

Currently, when a service request fails in any of the boxes from the workflow(independent of the error/failing reason), customers need to submit the request again.

It would be great if you could re-start the workflow from the last "working" point further. Example attached.